

COOKIE POLICY

BlueStar uses cookies. Cookies are unique identifiers that we transfer to your device or operating system to enable our systems to recognise your device and to provide features to assist you with your visits to BlueStarCompany.co.uk website.

We also use cookies for additional purposes, including: • Identifying you when you sign-in to our website. • Conducting research, analytics and diagnostics to improve all our services, content, products and services for all customers. • Improving security. • Preventing fraudulent activity.

BlueStar uses cookies and similar technologies to enhance your experience and customise content for you by understanding how you use our website.

Cookies are small files that a website or its service provider transfers to your device or computer's hard drive through your Web browser (only if you permit it) that enables web sites or service providers systems to identify your browser and capture and remember certain visiting customer behaviour and user information.

We use cookies for all the right reasons which include complying with the Law and specifically ensuring that your user website experience runs as smoothly as possible.

By clicking the OK button on the home page when you first visit our website, you are agreeing to their use. If you do not want to have cookies enabled then please select No from the Cookie policy bar.

Please feel free to email us if you have any concerns about any of the above before using our website and checkout or purchasing any of our goods and services.
